The Wounded Blue
in partnership with Peacemaker Project 703
and Project Never Broken
proudly presents:

Law enforcement officers are experiencing injuries and many other traumatic events in the line of duty at unprecedented levels. The National Law Enforcement Survival Summit is designed to help officers prevent injuries and to prepare you for dealing with these unfortunate experiences.

THIS LIMITED CAPACITY EVENT WILL FEATURE:

- A 4-day event focused on helping law enforcement officers understand and learn how to deal with all aspects of surviving the elements of the job
- Some of the best known national and international speakers including:
 - Dr. Kevin Gilmartin author of Hope for Law Enforcement
 - Dave and Betsy Smith leading international trainers for law enforcement personnel
 - Jason Scheckterle Author, survivor and inspirational speaker
 - Additional speakers to be confirmed
- Topics the speakers will cover include:
 - Dealing with PTSD
 - Leadership challenges
 - Recovering from injury
 - Discussions on how to prevent injury
- Understanding what to expect if injured
- Overcoming traumatic incidents
- Available health and wellness tools
- Special events, entertainment and law-enforcement vendors displaying their goods and new gear available for officers

WHEN/WHERE:

October 11-14 | Terre Haute, Indiana, Convention Center

$295.00 for law enforcement officers; $150.00 for guests/partners

INCLUDES:

Costs for attending Summit, breakfast and lunch each day of the Survival Summit

HOTEL RESERVATIONS:

Call Hilton Garden Inn, 812-230-8900 and tell them you're reserving the room for the Summit to receive conference rate of $95.00 per night

Register now and we will contact you to secure your place for the National Law Enforcement Survival Summit.