LEAD INSTRUCTOR

Chief Ed Delmore
Gulf Shores (AL) Police Department

This project is supported by funds from the Department of Homeland Security,
Federal Fiscal Year 2017 Homeland Security Grant Program, CFDA #97.067.

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

Chief Ed Delmore, Gulf Shores, AL Police Dept.

Ed Delmore has been a police officer since 1982. He has served as a patrol officer, undercover narcotics investigator, patrol sergeant, watch commander, deputy chief, and chief of police. For several years he was the working commander of the most successful municipal criminal interdiction unit in the State of Illinois. He currently serves as the Chief of Police in Gulf Shores, Alabama. Gulf Shores is an island resort community in the Gulf of Mexico. Ed earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree from Southwestern Illinois College, a Bachelor's Degree from Western Illinois University, and a Master's Degree from Webster University. He is a graduate of the Administrative Officer's Course at the University of Louisville's Southern Police Institute and the FBI National Academy (Session 205). He has seized millions of dollars in illicit drugs and drug currency and has trained thousands of police officers throughout the United States on criminal interdiction techniques.

Officer Stacy McElroy, Gulf Shores, AL Police Dept.

Stacy McElroy has been a police officer for 19 years and is currently a patrol officer with the Gulf Shores Police Department in Alabama. He is assigned to the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office Special Operations Unit. He began to focus his career on both inner city criminal enforcement as well as interstate criminal interdiction upon being hired with the Collinsville Police Department in 2004. He served there as a patrol officer, K9 handler and a Task Force Officer with the Drug Enforcement Administration. During his 18 years of service Officer McElroy has been named Patrolman of the Month numerous times and Patrolman of the Year on two occasions. He also earned the Top Gun Award for the most self-initiated felony arrests in a single year under the department's Aggressive Criminal Enforcement (ACE) program on two occasions. During his career, he has made several significant seizures and other criminal arrests. Officer McElroy has involved in investigations resulting in the seizure of thousands of pounds of narcotics and over one million dollars in US Currency. He has also apprehended several fugitives from justice including an escaped convict and a subject wanted for Aggravated Murder. Officer McElroy has located several secret compartments on vehicles during consent and probable cause searches. He has been summoned by other agencies to assist in the search of vehicles due to his knowledge of hidden compartments. Since 2005, he has trained thousands of officers in Criminal Patrol Drug Enforcement throughout the country and for Mobile Training Units in Illinois.
